

Rocky Mountain Region Staff College

17—25 July 2010

This formal in-residence course, designed to help CAP officers better execute the duties and responsibilities associated with Command and Staff positions at squadron level and above, is also an opportunity to improve your management skills. This is a required course for promotion to Lt. Col.

You also need this training if --

- You are serving in a command or staff position, and/or
- You want or need a better understanding of the CAP organization, tradition, and know how.

The activity will give you a letter of course completion to present to your employer, which you may also use to submit for professional development units (PDUs). Many employers will pay for you to attend such a course.
